ILLEGIB

2. Mr. Corbin Allerdice, Director of the Staff of the Joint Congressional Committee on Atomic Energy, called me on 7 April to say that the security of the Committee rooms had not been checked for some time for microphones, etc., and would CIA desire to check them before their appearance on 13 April. I informed Mr. Allerdice today that in view of our statutory prohibitions, it would be improper for us to check the rooms.
